

Shades of summer

WHEN a contemporary art space meets the fashions from Brian Job Optical you have 'Visions' – a unique launch of the summer season in eye wear.

More than 80 people gathered at hip new art gallery 19 Karen to view the latest optical fashions from Fendi, Karl Lagerfeld, Emilio Pucci and Jean Paul Gaultier in the spacious art space tucked away off the Gold Coast Highway.

Top marks to whoever thought up the idea of combining bold artworks with up-to-the-minute eye wear designs that will be on all the best read faces this summer.

Add drinks and canapés to the mix and it made for a perfect night out.
