▲ See it

SUMMER feels like it's well and truly upon us and, as always, sunglasses will become the fashion staple. New art hot spot on the coast, 19 Karen contemporary art space, will host the 2009 Summer Eyewear Collection, Shades of Summer, next Wednesday (November 12).

The night will combine the art and fashion worlds in one. Designs by Emilio Pucci, Fendi, Karl Lagerfeld, Michael Kors and John Varvatos will be on display and part of a small parade to showcase season themes.

Be the first to see the new collection before they hit the stores in the contemporary art space and dress your eyes in what will be the must-haves for summer.

This event is set to become an annual one on the coast and a 'not to be missed' night out for local stylistas.

The balmy evening includes drinks and canapés with plenty of prizes to be won.

Head to 19 Karen contemporary art space at 19 Karen Avenue, Mermaid Beach, between 6pm and 9pm.

WITH summer coming up, here's your chance to learn how to rip it up like the girls from Blue Crush. Rip Curl's Girls Go Surfing Day is back!

Here is the chance for you to get out there and give it a go without the boys laughing at your goofy foot.

There'll be customised introductory learn-to-surf lessons for all female beginner surfers and those who haven't even stepped foot on a board.

Learn to surf in this fun environment while being encouraged by some of the best girls on the pro tour, like Stephanie Gilmore.

The weekend event is being held at 65 beaches across Australia and is coming to the Gold Coast on November 15 and 16.

The exact location will be released closer to the date.

Tuesday magazine is giving away 10 prize packs worth $200 each.

Each pack includes a Rip Curl watch, Rip Curl Girls Go Surfing Day singlet, Alba Hawaiian skincare products and a poster. For your chance to win, check out the coupon on page 10 of today's magazine.
