BIOGRAPHY

Born in Portugal in 1981, Vitor Dos Santos moved to Sydney with his family in 1990, and at 23 relocated to Lismore to complete a Bachelor of Visual Arts Degree (Major: Painting, Minor in Digital Art & Design) Vitor's signature use of charcoal, graphite, pencil, newspaper and acrylic paint depicts the artist's yearn for primary imaginations and child-like phantasmic explorations.

For Yelling at Letters Vitor talks about his practice: "Through an almost compulsive drawing process I am able to generate ideas and follow certain narratives, which lead me to the absurdity of these paintings. Burst word bubbles, floating letters and clumsy figures with strange hats, subtly mock their own existence."

Vitor has exhibited extensively since graduating in 2007.

He is now currently based in Brisbane and is represented by 19 KAREN on the Gold Coast.

Yelling at Letters coincides with 19 KAREN's one-year anniversary.
