Carolyn O'Neill - 'Abstracted Still Life'

Skount - 'Projections - Internal latent'

Opening Night: 21st November 2015 | 6 - 8pm

It's our last show of the year and its going to be HUGE!

In a technicolour explosion, Internationally acclaimed Pop sensation - Johnny Romeo - presents 'POP LIFE'. Delving deep into the persuasive power of iconography in Pop culture, Johnny has removed the text from his visual vocabulary to allow the subject matter to speak for themselves, resulting in a powerful body of work that literally bursts forth from the canvas.

In 'Abstracted Still Life', Carolyn O'Neill takes her daily sketchings of the collected object around her home and has translated them into colourful oil paintings - the objects expressing her obsession for the mid-century modernist aesthetic.

Inspired by classical theatre, deities and ornamentations from different cultures and aesthetics from VXII century, Skount presents a metaphorical seeking for our inner self, a surreal study of our latent inner universe in '-Projections - Internal Latent'.

It's going to be a visually spectacular exhibition and a wonderful way to celebrate and bring a fantastic year to a close at 19 Karen.

This exciting show opens at 19 Karen on 21st November and will run until 6th January 2016.
